We notified folks that we will be starting logistics post Fire and SJP conference. Rabbis understood and encouraged us to focus efforts on those right now.

I've been asking around for potential interns.
Thank you,

Aviv Kleinman

Posted this on a La Jewish job board:

LA City Councilmember Paul Koretz's Office is seeking a volunteer intern to assist with the new Faith-Based Task Force.

This Task Force is a new initiative to improve Faith-Based community security (with special focus on the Jewish Community and counter-anti-Semitism and counter-terrorism. The ideal intern would be someone who is focused on improving communication between the Jewish community and LAPD, Federal Law Enforcement Agencies, community-based security, etc. This internship is great for anyone looking to enter Law Enforcement, Security, government, or simply cares about the safety and security of LA's Jewish communities.

The position will be very rewarding, and will give the intern a lot of exposure to the above agencies, and will look amazing on a resume. Hours flexible, and may be able to mostly work from home.

Some duties would include:

- Coordinating meetings between Law Enforcement and Jewish Organizations (synagogues, schools, etc)
- Conducting site visits of Jewish Organizations and assisting Law Enforcement with identifying security 'soft spots'
- Reporting to the Councilmember and staff with updates

Please email me at aviv.kleinman@lacity.org with a resume and a few paragraphs about yourself, or to ask any questions.

Thank you,

Aviv Kleinman
